

The role of media in nurturing American democracy is enormous. We should not shortchange this greatest American principle to satisfy the immediate partisan goals. FCC should have no part in aiding partisan causes even when some economic gains may be reduced by its members. Thank you,
Kazuko Thornton